For the avoidance of doubt, the submission of a dispute to AuctionLux for resolution internally and the delivery of a notice of claim to AuctionLux are prerequisites to commencement of an arbitration proceeding (or any other legal proceeding). During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by you or AuctionLux shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator.

2. Agreement to arbitrate and governing law. You and AuctionLux agree that, subject to paragraph 1 above, any dispute, claim, or controversy between you and AuctionLux arising in connection with or relating in any way to these terms or to your relationship with AuctionLux as a user of AuctionLux services (whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation, or any other legal theory, and whether the claims arise during or after the termination of these terms) will be determined by mandatory final and binding individual (not class) arbitration, except as set forth below under exceptions to agreement to arbitrate. You and AuctionLux further agree that the arbitrator shall have the exclusive power to rule on his or her own jurisdiction, including without limitation any objections with respect to the existence, scope or validity of the agreement to arbitrate, or to the arbitration of any claim or counterclaim. Arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court. There is no judge or jury in arbitration, and court review of an arbitration award is limited. There may be more limited discovery than in court. The arbitrator must follow this agreement and can award the same damages and relief as a court (including, if applicable, attorney fees), except that the arbitrator may not award declaratory or injunctive relief in favour of anyone but the parties to the arbitration. Any arbitration will be conducted in the English language. Regardless of the manner in which the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the decision and award, if any, are based. Judgment on any arbitral award may be given in any court having jurisdiction over the party (or over the assets of the party) against whom such an award is rendered. Time for filing: any arbitration against AuctionLux must be commenced by filing a request for arbitration within one (1) year, after the date the party asserting the claim first knows or reasonably should know of the act, omission or default giving rise to the claim; and there shall be no right to any remedy for any claim not asserted within that time period. This one year limitation period is inclusive of the internal dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph 1 of this section, above. You and AuctionLux further agree to waive any right for such claims to be brought, heard, or arbitrated as a class, collective, representative, or private attorney general action, to the extent permissible by applicable law. Combining or consolidating individual arbitrations into a single arbitration is not permitted without the consent of all parties, including AuctionLux.

XI. Code of Ethics

Partners of AuctionLux and agree that:

Their membership in AuctionLux and all rights and benefits associated with such a membership (position in the network, eligibility for bonuses and discounts, etc.) may be suspended or cancelled if they consciously and repeatedly act and behave in a way that is contrary to the provisions and the spirit of the Terms. Members are liable for any losses and/or damages caused by such violations of the Terms.

Partners will be responsible for the wellbeing of their customers and, as sponsors, for the development of their partners they introduced to the AuctionLux opportunity. Partners will conduct their business in a decent and honest manner that reflects the high ethical standards of the AuctionLux system. They can expect the same behaviour and treatment from other members of their groups.

Partners will present the products and the business opportunity offered by AuctionLux in an honest and realistic way without any exaggeration or undue euphemism. Naturally, partners are free to give a personal account of their own experiences and successes. They will not promise quick money or fast success as these promises are foreign to AuctionLux. Partners must take responsibility for any potential loss or damage resulting from non-compliance.

Partners of AuctionLux will refrain from publishing written or oral statements that are not part of AuctionLux own official marketing and promotion material. Partners are responsible for maintaining and building the good reputation of AuctionLux and its management, staff, employees and representatives even after the eventual cessation or termination of the cooperation agreement between partners and AuctionLux.

Should partners have any questions and issues regarding the products and/or the business opportunity, they should first consult their upline sponsor(s). Should there be any uncertainty about the Terms or any of its provisions, the sponsor(s) and AuctionLux will make every effort to clarify them. AuctionLux makes every possible effort to align all aspects and areas of its activities with prevailing rules and legal requirements.

Partners will not use the occasion of company events and meetings to promote the products and/or services and/or opportunities offered by other marketing systems. Partners will not use any of their contacts they made in AuctionLux to promote other business opportunities or products or services. They will not recruit members from the ranks of the AuctionLux network into other marketing systems, especially not for any other business with a profile that is similar to that of AuctionLux.

In order to preserve the integrity and stability of our business, and to recognize the hard work of our leaders, AuctionLux, as a general rule, will not support any request from its partners to change their sponsor(s). AuctionLux believes it is important to safeguard the hierarchy in the network.

Partners may ask the company to place them in a new structure if, and only if it has been proven that unethical, misleading and dishonest methods and practices had been applied when they were sponsored. Such requests will be carefully investigated and ruled upon. Requests may be honoured if all partners affected by a change of sponsors agree to such a change in writing. AuctionLux will investigate thoroughly any accusations of unethical conduct and act if necessary.

Some partners, driven by uncontrolled enthusiasm, may occasionally make the mistake of painting unrealistic or misleading visions about income expectations. This may disappoint many new partners as not everybody will reach the same high levels of success over a given time frame. AuctionLux recommends that partners share their own personal success stories instead of making idealistic statements.

Partners are not allowed to present the products, services and the business opportunity offered by AuctionLux together with other products, services and opportunities because this may create the false impression that there might be a link or connection between different systems and companies. Likewise, partners should not promote products, services and business opportunities offered by other companies within the AuctionLux system.

Any public degradation of AuctionLux and its products, services, compensation plan, employees and management will be regarded as a blatant breach of the rules contained in the Terms and the Code of Ethics.

To preserve the integrity and stability of the business, any acts that undermines the BAU of AuctionLux will be treated as a breach of trust and will be investigated thoroughly until proven innocent. Members involved may face legal preceding on top of the above mentioned punishments to preserve the credibility and integrity of the business.

Any violation of the Terms and the Code of Ethics will result in convening the Ethics Committee, consisting of upline of the partner accused of the violation, a representative of AuctionLux management and an outside expert. It is the Ethics Committee's exclusive right to:

- issue written warnings;
- impose fines, deductible from bonuses;
- suspend qualification for one or several types of bonuses;
- suspend the position for a determined time period;
- terminate the violating partner's position;
- take any other step all three members of the Ethics Committee regard as reasonable and appropriate to remedy the situation and fix any damages incurred as a result of violating the Terms and/or the Code of Ethics.

Death of a partner. Positions with all bonuses, accumulated BV, rights to discounts, qualifications, rank and entitlements are inheritable, under the rules and regulations of inheritance law of the given country. If a deceased partner's position is inherited by more than one person, the beneficiaries must form a legal entity with a tax number which entity will be the new partner of AuctionLux. AuctionLux will only pay bonuses to that legal entity.
